Test Run 2024_08_20-13:54:09

ID: negative_story

Textual Workflow Description: John, roused by the repetitive chime of his alarm, lethargically extended his arm to deactivate it. He then ambled toward the restroom to cleanse his teeth. Subsequent to this, he prepared a caffeinated beverage and situated himself near the window, observing the dawn while gradually consuming his drink turn it off, then stumbled to the bathroom to brush his teeth. After that, he brewed a cup of coffee and sat by the window, watching the sunrise as he sipped his drink.
